1. Independence Day Celebrations

Our college celebrated 74th Independence Day with great enthusiasm on 15th August 2020 in collaboration with NSS unit of the college. The flag hoisting took place at 10:30 am. Dr S.A. Bhide, Director of our college unfurled the National flag. Officiating Principal Mr. AshishBawankar presided over the function. The program was anchored by MsKhushbooAgarwal, Asst Professor, Department of English.

An online essay competition was organized on 14th August 2020 as per guidelines given by the Government on “Atma Nirbhar Bharat”. The topic of the essay competition was "How can India become self-sufficient ". On this occasion, winners of the essay competition were awarded with prize money and certificate. DrBhide congratulated the winners and appreciated their efforts. She also explained the actual meaning of self-sufficiency to the students. She informed that Mr. Danish Md Sheikh, nurse working in the COVID ward of Govt. Medical College, Nagpur, was also invited for the function as part of COVID warriors felicitation program but that he could not attend due to unavoidable circumstances and hence would be given an appreciation letter. The program concluded with a vote of thanks by Ms. KhushbooAgarwal.
